THE SALONS ROSSINI IN FERMIGNANO AT THE EX
LANIFICIO CAROTTI

On Wednesday, 24th July at 9 pm, the Ex Lanificio Carotti in Fermignano will host the second event of the Salons Rossini, a series of concerts featuring students from the Accademia Rossiniana "Alberto Zedda" 2024. The series is inspired by the famous and lively Salons Rossini of the past and takes place in several villages in the province of Pesaro Urbino. This offers ROF audiences the chance to explore the provincial area while bringing the festival's performances to new audiences in unusual and charming locations.

The concerts are part of the Festival Giovane 2024 programme, a section of the Rossini Opera Festival dedicated to young talents of the future. They will be introduced by Alessandra Paciotti from the Fondazione Rossini and there will be a toast at the end of the night.

The evening is titled Il Tenore Rossiniano. Performers include Aleksey Kursanov, Bryan López González, Marcelo Solís, and Alikhan Zeinolla, accompanied on piano by Alessandro Uva. The programme features the Cavatina of Lindoro "Languir per una bella" from L'Italiana in Algeri, the Aria of Ramiro «Si, ritrovarla io giuro» from Cenerentola, the Count's Cavatina "Ecco ridente in cielo" from Il Barbiere di Siviglia and Rodrigo's Cavatina "Eccomi a voi, miei prodi" from La donna del Lago. Admission is free until seats are available. Before the concert, a video station will be available for the audience to watch excerpts from the Concerti dal Balcone at Casa Rossini, filmed at 360 degrees with ambisonic audio and viewable via VR headsets, thanks to the collaboration with Sinergia and the CTE Square of Pesaro.

The other four events in the series, all scheduled for 9 pm, will take place on Friday 26th July at the Church of S. Marco in Mombaroccio, Monday 29th July at the Church of S. Francesco in Mercatello sul Metauro, Tuesday 30th July at the Church of S. Caterina d'Alessandria in Sant'Angelo in Vado and Thursday 1st August in the Cortile d'Onore of Palazzo Ducale in Urbino.

The third edition of the Salons Rossini is organised in collaboration with the Fondazione Rossini and the municipalities of Gradara, Fermignano, Mombaroccio, Mercatello sul Metauro, Sant'Angelo in Vado and Urbino, with the support of the Ministry of Culture, EBWorld, NCCMetauro and with contributions from the Fondazione Cassa di Risparmio of Pesaro.
